[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JUNE 15.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Further from Paris.

PARIS, June 14.—In the Assembly to-day Trochu continued his defense of the administration of military affairs in Paris. He gave a minute account of sorties during the seige and reasons therefor. He attributed their defeat to the fact that the Germans used artillery only. He believed the French would have beaten the German infantry if they could have engaged them. His main plan had been a grand sortie toward Rouen, but after the victory of Orleans public opinion demanded a junction of the garrison of Paris with the Army of the Loire, which was sheer madness.

One great obstacle in conducting the defense was the disorderly element in Paris, which was instigated by Bismarck to rebel and was furnished arms by the enemy. He stigmatized the commencement of bombardment by the Germans without formal notice as an unparalleled violation of the rules of civil and war.

VERSAILLES, June 14.—The official journal says the story that the condemned insurgents were shot in Bois de Boulogne with mitrailleuse is an absurd calumny.

The French Assembly.

PARIS, June 14.—A manifesto appeared to-day signed by 81 Deputies of the Left. It accuses monarchist deputies of not keeping the agreement made in Bordeaux, stipulating that partisan politics should be avoided, and charges legitimatist members from the provinces with intriguing for the restoration of monarchy and intervention in favor of the Pope.

Many Communist prisoners are discharged for lack of evidence.

It is denied that Rorcato La Roquette is a candidate for the Assembly.

Temps says the French Bishops are actively moving for the reinstatement of the Pope in his temporal powers.

In order to combat Bonaparte intrigues the Deputies propose to impeach the Emperor for declaring and waging war.

Rochefort's defense is incompetent. A jury is demanded.

The German Parliament.

BERLIN, June 14.—Emperor William has congratulated the Pope.

Parliament unanimously sanctioned the grants relative to the reserves of Landwehr.

The bill for special grants has passed.

The prorogation of Parliament will probably be Thursday afternoon.

Dispatch from Berlin.

BERLIN, June 14.—The donation bill committee met, examined the bill and adopted it with amendments. The Empire distributes 4,000,000 thalers among the Generals and statesmen achieving results in the war.

The Alabama question (?) has been decided. It is said the American Envoy on the continent has received instructions to agree with Powers for protection of property at sea. The consent of England and France is doubtful.

EASTERN STATES.

The New Loan in Europe.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Richardson with Messrs. Bigelow and Prout, of the Treasury Departments, sailed in the Java for Liverpool to-day for the purpose of promoting the disposal of new Government bonds, and also bearing dispatches to Minister Schenck. The party takes out several millions of new registered bonds.

New Hampshire Politics.

CONCORD, June 14.—Governor Weston was inaugurated to-day.

CANADA.

The Union with British Columbia.

OTTAWA, June 14.—The home Government have directed that the union of British Columbia with Canada take place on the 20th July.

CURRENT NOTES.

It is always so. Of the whole number of persons committed to the common jails of Connecticut last year, 2,893, in all 2,460 were of intemperate habits, and only 180 strictly temperate—a fact which is of itself a pretty good temperance lecture.

A reasonable amount of chastisement of one's wife seems to be considered the proper thing in Boston. In a recent case before the municipal court of that city, the evidence showed that because the wife refused to go up stairs for her children who were crying, the husband disciplined her in the manner frequently adopted by mothers in correcting their offspring, using the flat of his hand in the operation, and that upon her continuing to disobey him he repeated the dose. But the husband was discharged.

It is said that England has 30,000 pulpits to a population of 30,000,000 or one pulpit to every thousand of the population. In the United States there is a church for every six hundred persons of the entire nation. Thus the "voluntary principle" vindicates itself, on the broadest arena of Christendom, and, what is more to the point, on its newest field, where every other kind of expensive provision for civilization has meanwhile to be made. Freedom is the true condition of religious success, as of every other kind of success which depends upon popular energies.

One of the pent-up men in the burning mine at Pittston, Penn., says: "After shutting ourselves in we sat down together all anxious, some despairing, some hoping we would see daylight again. About six o'clock some of them went to sleep, and I tried to wake them up, but they would sleep. Again we shook hands with each other, kissed each other, and all prayed. Some of the men were crying. We who were awake were anxious to hear some sign of salvation coming to us. I opened the door and went through to the bottom of the shaft, but almost failed to come back. Since then I remember nothing—it seems as if I had been dreaming."

Alluding to the declaration made in British Columbia that Great Britain should fight rather than surrender one inch of the sacred soil of San Juan, the New York Tribune says: "Their heroism in pushing the British Empire up to be scratch has not been equalled since Artemus Ward offered to sacrifice all his wife's relations for the suppression of the rebellion. Of course it is not to be supposed that England and America will venture to settle their differences without the approval of the Legislative Council of Victoria, and thus we see the salmon fisheries and lumbermen of Nootka and Vancouver's Island become arbiters of the peace of two continents."

Sudden and Remarkable Death.

A dispatch from North Platte, Nebraska, dated June 8th, gives this:

Yesterday afternoon a woman on a west-bound emigrant train was found dead by the conductor in the water closet. A coroner's inquest was held upon her body here, and the verdict of the jury was that she died of an apoplectic stroke. Upon her person was found $8 00 in United States coin, some gold and currency, one pair of diamond ear rings, finger rings, a gold watch and other jewelry, and from their peculiar setting, supposed to be of great value. The property on her person was estimated to be worth at least $12,000. Her name was Johanna Maria G. PenLermans, daughter of Petrus J. A. PenKermans, M. D., of Antwerp. Her age was about 31; residence Oriselear, Province Arrondissement Antwerp; her destination San Francisco. A card bearing the following was found upon her: "Monsieur Duprez, 528 Broadway street, San Francisco, California." Her hands and feet were small and delicate, and she had been doctored for apoplexy by some of the most eminent physicians of Germany and France. Her papers show a title of nobility on her mother's side. She will be buried in a metalic case here.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Dispatch from Versailles.

VERSAILLES, June 14.—The visit of the Assembly to Paris is regarded as the first approach to genuine reconciliation.

Gauche contains a manifesto of Paris electors against a monarchy and in favor of a republic.

Napoleon's Movements.

LONDON, June 15.—Napoleon visited the Kent Cricketery and was feted. He is surrounded by old adherents, and bold movements are rumored.

Feeling among the Paris Paris.

PARIS, June 15.—The destruction of life and property vastly exceeds Government newspaper accounts.

Paris workmen are almost unanimously Communists and are bitter because of defeat. They hate Theirs and the Bonapartists, and many will emigrate to America.

France and Italy.

VERSAILLES, June 15.—The story that Italy demands the recall of Hershowit is denied.

The Republican Left's manifesto is generally approved. The Radical manifesto creates a bad impression because it excuses the Commune. Journals ridicule it.

French bishops demand the re-establishment of the Pope's temporality, but it is the unanimous belief that the question is settled and France cannot interfere.

Dispatches via London.

LONDON, June 15.—The Times says McMahon desires to resign.

The army of reserve is dissolved.

Vinoy retires.

Twenty four thousand people are daily arriving by the northern and western railroads.

Galignani says the fusion of Bourbons and Legitimists is incomplete.

Paris journals say eastern lines are crowded with returning Germans laden with plunder.

Other Dispatches from Europe.

ROME, June 15.—Several foreign deputations have arrived. More are expected.

MADRID, June 15.—Sagasta denounced the International Society, and a motion favorable to the Society was unanimously rejected. A ministerial crisis is expected.

LONDON, June 15.—A marriage is arranged between Princess Thyra of Denmark and the Duke of Edinburgh.

BRITISH AMERICAN PROVINCES.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The loss of a fishing schooner with forty seven persons, on the coast of Newfoundland, was reported last week. A later account states that two women named Mary McGrath and Mrs. Lilburn, left St. Johns as passengers aboard the ill-fated schooner. All but one of those who are missing or drowned, leave wives behind who were dependent on them for means to live through the long and profitless winter of Newfoundland. The name of the schooner was Little Belle.

A dispatch from Ottawa says recent advices from Newfoundland, gave particulars of the reception of the treaty of Washington in one of the provinces most interested in the question of the fisheries. The people of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick expected that Newfoundland would be wholly with them in opposition to the treaty, but on the contrary, the sentiment of that colony and of the fishermen, appears to be entirely in favor of ratification.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—The funeral of the late Capt. Rankin took place this afternoon. The hearse was escorted by a detachment of regular United States artillery and infantry and followed by the Associated Veterans of the Mexican War with a full band and colors draped and a long line of carriages with citizens. A salute was fired from Fort Alcatraz as the procession moved through Montgomery street.

Her British Majesty's steamer Lealone arrived from Honolulu this afternoon, and fired a grand salute on passing up the harbor which was returned from Fort Alcatraz.

Arrived—British ship Castle Head, 130 days from Liverpool, merchandise to Parrott & Co.

Ogla Foda, a territorial Prince, and son-in-law of the Prime Minister of Japan, with 21 Japanese students and a bearer of dispatches from the Japanese Finance Department, for Washington, left for the East overland to-day.

John A. Robinson has been appointed Associate United States Commissioner, with Nathaniel Holland, for the city and county of San Francisco.

THIERS ON THE TREATY OF PEACE.—In the debate on the Treaty of Peace in the French National Assembly on the 18th ult., Gen. Chanzy and some other speakers objected to the exchange of territory proposed by Prince Bismarck. M. Thiers, in reply, sought to show that the Luxemburg frontier offered no military protection, and that the exchange proposed in that direction in no way affected the political interests of France, whereas Belfort affords strong military advantages by closing up a passage through the Vosges. M. Thiers added: "Belfort has acquired a much greater importance since the loss of Strasbourg. I struggled for fourteen hours to obtain Belfort with its surrounding district, but a simple stronghold does not suffice in the present times. We require a fortress on our frontier capable of affording support to a large army by the extent of its territory—such a place as Lyons. The new cantons added to Belfort connect the Vosges with the Jura and render Belfort one of the strongest fortresses in Europe. Prince Bismarck desires the coal districts of the Ardennes only in order to gain over the Alsatians and develop the industry of the Rhenish provinces, but France possesses elsewhere far richer mining districts, and the territorial cession in question matters little." M. Thiers reminded the Assembly of his opposition to the declaration of war, and referred to the pain it cost him to sign such a peace as that before the House. He protested against some calumnious statements respecting him, and added: "I must now declare that I regard this treaty as an act of the greatest patriotism. Moreover, as Gen. Chanzy has said, it is not the diplomatists but the military men of a country that make a treaty of peace. The persons engaged in the negotiations have done their duty, and I cover their labors with my responsibility." M. Thiers concluded by paying homage to the defenders of Belfort, especially mentioning the name of Col. Denfert, and quoting from a letter from that officer in which he concurs in the opinions of M. Thiers. Gen. Ducrot and Gen. Chabran expressed approval of the exchange of territory on military grounds. The second clause of the report was then agreed to by 440 votes against 5, and the whole treaty was subsequently approved.

FALL OF AN AEROLITE IN MAINE.—A letter from Edward Borgess of Sacramont, Maine, gives the particulars of the fall of an aerolite or meteoric stone in the southern part of this town on Sunday morning, May 1st, about 8 o'clock. He says that there was first heard an explosion like the report of a heavy gun, followed by a rushing sound like the escape of steam from a boiler. The sound seemed to come from the south, and to move northwardly. The stone fell in the field of Mr. Bean, the flying earth being seen by Mrs. Buel, who lives near. The hole that it made was soon found, and the stone dug out. It was quite hot and broken so it could be removed only by pieces. The most of it is now in possession of Mr. Luce, who dug it out. The outside shows plainly the effect of melting heat. It struck with such force as to penetrate the hard soil to the depth of two feet. The stone is of a grayish color, except upon the outside, where it is quite black. It is just twenty two years, to a day, since a similar stone fell at Castine, Me. It was much less in size, and penetrated two inches into a hard dry road. It came from the southeast, and was accompanied by a report that was heard at a distance of thirty miles.

Vallandigham's Disappointment.

HOW HIS LITTLE SCHEME TO NOMINATE MR CHASE IN 1868 FELL THROUGH.

[From the Chicago Republican, May 21.]

There is manifest historical untruth in putting Vallandigham forward as the champion of Seymour—or as one favoring the nomination of that gentleman at all. Vallandigham went to New York in 1868 with no intention of taking an active part in the Convention. He was not an elected delegate, and he was known to be hostile to the claims of the Ohio candidate—Mr. Pendleton. He was boarding in a quiet house up town, far removed from the strife and turmoil of the Fifth Avenue and the St. Nicholas. The writer of this article was the first to call upon him in his seclusive retirement. In reply to a question as to who was his candidate and what he proposed to do, he replied that he had no candidate, and he didn't propose to do anything. He was very positive, however, that Pendleton had no chance for the nomination—and this fact, so far from grieving him, seemed to cheer him very much. He felt bitter toward Pendleton and his friends because they had helped Thurman in the recent Senatorial election.

As soon as Val's presence in the city became known, the Pendleton men caucused on the best means of pacifying him, and it was quickly resolved to vacate a seat in the Ohio delegation for his benefit. This was done, and Val accepted with alacrity, pledging himself to stand by Pendleton while there was a chance for him, but well knowing there was no chance. On the evening of the first day of the Convention Vallandigham had a long conference with the New York delegation, in which the subject of Chase's nomination was agitated at considerable length. There was little or no opposition to it, and the only question in dispute seemed to be as to the best means of bringing his name before the Convention. Several meetings and conferences were held, at each of which Vallandigham was prominently present. He had by this time thrown off his outward shell of indifference or neutrality, was inwardly rejoicing over the Pendleton's defeat, and was openly advocating the nomination of Chase.

Finally, the night before the nomination of Seymour, Mr. Vallandigham met a few friends by special invitation, at the Manhattan Club Rooms, and it was then and there arranged that at a certain stage of the next day's proceedings Vallandigham was to put Seymour in nomination, and Seymour was to decline in favor of Chase, who was thereupon to be put through with a hurrah. This programme was spoiled by a little squabble for personal precedence among the Ohio delegates. Mr. George W. McCook insisted on thrusting himself forward to do all the talking, and make all the motions for the Ohio delegation. It was he, we believe, who first suggested Seymour to the convention. Vallandigham made a very neat speech, apparently to urge acceptance, but really, as we have reason to know, to give the old fellow time to get his wits about him and nominate Chase. We know, also, that when Seymour, "swearing he would never consent, consented," there was not a more indignant person in the City of New York than C. L. Vallandigham. Before he left Tammany Hall that day he did some of the tallest swearing known to modern statesmanship. He said he "never saw a good thing so nearly done and then so badly botched."

British Royalty Eclipsed by the Tammany Democracy.

[From the N. Y. Herald.]

Tammany Hall, in her Oriental splendors, throws British royalty completely in the shade, and "the Boss" is fast approaching the magnificence of the Great Mogul. The wedding presents displayed in a grand showroom the other evening, on the occasion of the marriage of a lovely daughter of "the Boss"—a princess of the New York Democracy—to a worthy and accomplished gentleman from New Orleans, of the name of Maginnis—descended probably from some one of the ancient kings of Ireland—were glorious to behold. They represented in cash the sum of seven hundred thousand dollars—a display of wedding presents unsurpassed by the collection of the Oviedo diamond wedding, or of any occasion of the kind, we dare say, since the marriage some two or three years ago of a daughter of the Khedive of Egypt, and completely eclipsing the jewelery presents to the British Princess Louise on the occasion of her union with the heir of the great Scottish Duke of Argyll. Seven hundred thousand dollars! What a testimonial of the royalty, and the abounding East Indian resources of Tammany Hall! Was there ever any Democracy to compare with this Democracy, in glory, power and equal rights under the sun? Never. And it is just the beginning of the good time coming. Don't talk of Jeff Davis and his absurd Democracy; don't mention the outrageous Democracy of the Paris Commune as representing true Democratic principles, but come to the fountain head of Democracy, the old Wigwam, and you will get them if you get within the lucky circle of the magic "ring." Then you get into a Democratic placer which gives you, without the labor of digging, but with some deep diving, the pearls of Ceylon, the silver of Mexico, the gold of California and the diamonds of Golconda, South America and Alaska. And they say that by the rule of three it all comes out of the Tax Levy, and from the abounding blessings of municipal sovereignty, and a municipal and a munificent emperor, who needs only a crown of brilliants and a throne of ivory, surmounted by a golden peacock as large as life, with an outspread tail blazing all over with diamonds, to rise to the Oriental splendors of the Great Mogul.

MATERNITY.—But what shall we say of the fashionable discredit of maternity, of society turning its power of innuendo and depreciation against the sacred source of its own life. I remember in my early married life that expectant maternity seemed a special disgrace to be concealed as long and as sedulously as possible. If alluded to, it was made a subject of commiseration or of unwelcome raillery. The happy models of social life were those who had one or two children only. A large family was in itself a misery. I have, indeed, seen the reverse of this. I have seen beauty made more beautiful, and dignity lifted to majesty, by the anticipation of that new life in which the woman receives along with her child a portion of its youth and freshness. I have seen the inconvenience patiently borne, the reward anticipated, days and weeks too precious with hope to be carelessly counted and dismissed. In such cases the mother is a prophetess, and her child when it comes, an embodied word of God. Woe to any set or communion that should silence it! The Germans boast the ancient reverence of their race for woman, too little recognizable to-day. But the Western theories to-day have the advantage. They are extending to wide world application. They are drawing the children of the East with subtle magic. They are bringing their practical enlargement and correction to the one-sided scheming and dreaming of the past. And in this Western world woman is to have a majestic place. Man is forced on the Christian level, however superficially adopted, to place her beside him. So seated she appears his equal. The children belong as much to her as to him, more to the State, most to God's high providence, to be trained as its conscious and willing instrument. If woman in America knows what she does, and why she will place the maternal dignity at the foundation of all others.—Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, in the Tribune.

Protests against the "New Departure"

Opposition to the new departure comes both from Northern and Southern Democrats. None of the Northern Democratic organs except those notoriously devoted to trimming fall in with the movement The Ashland (Ohio) States and Union thus expresses its disapprobation

Now that the war cloud has blown over, and Democracy are again righting the old ship of [illegible] and restoring harmony, it is proposed that party shall debase itself by declaring its pur[illegible] acquiesce in the fraudulent and pretended constitutional amendments which were forced [illegible] country by intimidation and military [illegible] against the wishes of a large majority [illegible] American people And this that the con[illegible] ambition of a few slippery political trick[illegible] may be gratified and temporary place and [illegible] reward their stultification

[illegible] more distasteful to the Southern [illegible] is the new programme We have [illegible] published statements which show [illegible] Jeff Davis is stumping the South against [illegible] received with tremendous enthusi[asm] [illegible] Augusta (Ga) Constitutionalist de[nounces] in bitter terms those who call themselves Democrats but who proclaim the constitutional amendments accomplished facts which are not to be disturbed Of the amendments it says

They are accomplished frauds—but accom[plished] [illegible] long as they stand unrepealed and [illegible] force But they stand, as they do, [illegible] the [illegible] protest of the States upon which [they were] [illegible] without a hearing They have [illegible] passed upon by ten of the Southern [States] [illegible] carry with them no moral sanction

This [is] the real Democratic position, this [is] what the party believe in their hearts, not withstanding their disclaimers for expedi[ency]

Pertinent Considerations

The [illegible] and jobbers of this city who went before the Legislature last fall and had [the] charter amended and doctored so that the indebtedness of the city might be increased [to] [illegible] thousand to four hundred thousand [illegible] a distinct object in view That [illegible] to put up a job in favor of the [illegible] monopoly Could the monopoly sell [illegible] to the city at an extravagant [illegible] would be a very pretty thing Will [the people] of Portland permit this job or any [other] to be consummated? How is it [to be] consummated? Through the [agency] of the Democratic party. Even the [illegible] told us that this is the purpose [illegible] circumstances can intelligent men be at a loss how to act? We know that [the] water monopoly now have a Democratic [illegible] in their interest. We have the [illegible] reiterated word for it Do the [illegible] want to put into the Coun[cil] some [illegible] members to act with Hallock?

The Republican Candidates

The honorable and reliable character of the Republican candidates for the Common Council is conceded by all citizens. To these nominations will be added on Saturday even[ing] [illegible] for honor and integrity No suspicion that any one of the men nominated by the Republicans for the Common Council can be [illegible] support any improper measure has been or can be alleged Every one of these candidates can be and we believe will be elected To place such men in the [Council] [illegible] an effort, and we trust the effort will be made

Dispatches of to-day state that Assistant Secretary Richardson of the Treasury Department has gone [to] Europe with a large amount of our new bonds Other late ad[vi]ces from Washington say that the chief ad[vantage] [illegible] this visit to Europe will be [illegible] about a favorable feeling in European financial circles relative to our funded loans [illegible] and 1901, bearing interest at the rate [illegible] and 4 per cent respectively [illegible] Boutwell's financial programme is so arranged that he feels no anxiety relative to the disposition of the new 5 per cent [bonds] [illegible] is confident that they will secure a ready sale both at home and abroad [It is] understood that Mr Richardson's [instruc]tions have a bearing more par[tic]ularly [towa]rd negotiations for the funded loans [illegible] and 1901

General Sherman was the object of a portion of Jeff Davis maledictions in the speech which [the] Democratic leader delivered amid the applause of his Democratic hearers at Atlanta [illegible] days ago "Your city," said Davis, addressing the people of Atlanta, "has been devastated and laid waste by an act darker than aught that ever disgraced the name of Turenne" We have read this or something very like it in Northern Democratic papers [illegible] We fear that Gen Sherman would not do for a Democratic candidate for President

The [illegible] Express says "The classes with which the Democratic politicians deal, know nothing of a conflict of ideas, can [only] be rallied for political encounter by the [illegible] presentation to them of a head to [hit] If the nigger is dragged from under[n]eath their cudgels, John Bull must be shoved [into] his place And that is the whole secret [of] the attitude to which the Democratic party [has] been committed, of opposition to the [illegible] Great Britain

A writer in the Nation makes an exhaustive examination of the fishery question as affected by the Washington Treaty The [illegible] which the writer makes is thus stated at [illegible] the article "This admirable [illegible] a great enlargement of liberties of [illegible] beyond anything we had a right to [illegible]

One of the planks of the new departure platform in Ohio resolves that, "holding still to the good old Democratic doctrine of annexation, or the acquisition of territory we are totally opposed to the acquisition of San Domingo" This is the party of national [illegible] the party that claims to be the only one worthy to govern the country

The South expects to dictate to the dough faced Democracy of the North as she did before the war This is the philosophy of the "lost cause Democracy" who, in the person of Jeff Davis, spurn the idea of "accepting the situation," and declare that they "accept nothing"

A dispatch from Washington dated June 1st, says The Ku Klux bill will be thoroughly enforced by the War Department An order has been issued to the commanders in the South to [res]pond to the requests of civil officers to protect them in the discharge of official duty, and the [illegible] revenue officers will apply directly to the [illegible] Commanders for assistance, instead [of] [the] Revenue Office here. To day, the Secretary, in response to the request of a United States Marshal telegraphed an order for the removal of troops, but all other circumstances and information is kept secret, in order to insure the success of the movement

Work is now being done in earnest on some of the Warren's diggings gold ledges.

The Affray at Salem.

SALEM, June 15 1871

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

DEAR SIR As the morning paper here does not give any detailed account of the affray between Watkinds and Clarke, I write you a line

It seems that Clarke was going down street at half past three and when across the street from Bush & Bank, Watkinds came on him from a store without being seen, and struck him with a rawhide knocking his hat down over his eyes and disarranging his spectacles so he couldn't see, but he turned on the assailant with a pocket knife got the rawhide away from him and ran him off the sidewalk and while he was pushing his hat up and straightening his glasses, Watkinds who was out in the street out of reach, drew his revolver (navy size I hear) Everybody ran and Clarke made a dash for the store door Watkinds fired at him as he entered and hit the door jamb Clarke stepped between the doors out of fire as he supposed, and Watkinds fired through the crack only a few feet off and the ball, after passing through several thicknesses of oil cloth struck Clarke fair in the back, on a suspender strap, and only caused a bad bruise He stepped out in front of the other door and said he was shot, not knowing the ball had not penetrated Watkinds shot at him then closely and missed and fired again before he was arrested

Great excitement prevails here and much effort will be made to save Watkinds harmless Eminent counsel of both parties of politics will be engaged on both sides, and the citizens here are determined to have the matter put through Ben Hayden will assist the prosecution Clarke is not much hurt and laments exceedingly having had to stop to take his hat from off his eyes just as the thing was getting interesting He showed good pluck, and had he possessed a good knife, a first class Democratic funeral would now be on hand SALEM

An Inquiry.

PORTLAND June 15, 1870

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

SIR This morning's OREGONIAN contains a correspondence between Judge Lewis and a number of citizens who urge him to become a candidate for re election In his reply, the Judge claims to have acted with the Republican party heretofore If he intends to act with that party in the future, and is desirous of obtaining political honor at its hands, why not say so in as many words? Why so much ambiguity of language so much adroitness in the wording of a simple paragraph which a few words to the point would make plain to every voter? Let your communications be, "yea yea, or nay nay, for what soever is more than this cometh of evil"

REPUBLICAN VOTER

The "Tribune" on the Administration

The New York Tribune has been accused of being opposed to the Administration of President Grant Here is the manner in which the Tribune speaks of the Administration, which certainly is something different from the language of condemnation:

Certainly the Administration has not been so brilliant as many might desire, but it has been better than we had a right to expect We took a man without civil experience Of course we expected him to make blunders in many matters of detail, but in what great question has Gen Grant disappointed the just hopes of the people?

He has made an economical Administration Over two hundred millions of the National debt have been extinguished, and the reduction still goes on Over eighty millions of taxes have been taken off, and the payment of debt relieves us besides of an annual burden of twelve millions of interest

He has made a peaceful Administration The Quaker policy has kept us out of serious contests with the Indians If we have not done all that the case of Cuba seemed to demand, we have at least had no war about it, when war would have been easy, and, with the baser sort, would have been popular If we have not had the South thoroughly pacified, we have at least avoided the harsh measures to which a soldier must have been often provoked by the excesses in that quarter, but from which we could only have expected a further postponement of the day of perfect peace We have kept the peace on the Canadian border even when the temptation to the cheap popularity of winking at a Fenian invasion was the greatest And now we have put the Alabama question, with all its terrible possibilities behind us forever

He has made a law abiding Administration He has had no will to enforce against the will of the people Strongly sympathizing with the Cubans, he has yet recognized and respected the popular disinclination, especially at the West, to assume any responsibility for their struggle Fervently anxious for the annexation of Santo Domingo, he has yet waived his policy, in deference to the opposition of some of our oldest and ablest Republicans, and has remitted the whole question to the decision of the country

The "Ruling Race"

It appears that the South has not yet got over the notion that the business of governing the country belongs to the leading spirits of that section, legitimately and exclusively, and that the Northern "mudsills" are usurpers Jeff Davis in his Atlanta speech, thus brought out this idea

Filled with that jealousy which springs from the knowledge of their inferiority, and of the justice of your pretensions, and conscious of broken covenants and a violated Constitution, they mistrust every movement, and tremble with fear when they think that right may again prevail. But wrong cannot always be triumphant I will say nothing and you must do nothing, even though tyranny press grievously upon you Forbear for a season, and a day will come when all will yet be well It may not, nor may some of you, live to see it, but it is surely coming He who reigns above and lives always will see that justice is done He will not allow the wicked to always remain in power, nor the righteous to be oppressed We can wait till that day comes and in the meantime be quiet 'Tis an old and wise saying that a good biting dog never barks much

Army Reorganization

A Washington telegram (June 1) to the New York Herald gives this

Upon the return of Gen Sherman from his Southern and Western inspection tour, toward the end of this month, the expected reorganization of the military divisions and departments into which the country is divided will probably take place The details are not yet fully arranged, but it is understood they involve the transfer of Lieutenant General Sheridan from Chicago to New York, from which point he will exercise a command extending over a territory embracing in its limits all the geographical possibilities arising out of the enforcement of the Ku Klux acts of the late sessions of the old and the new Congress From the Pacific coast General Schofield will probably be recalled to command the Division of the Missouri, now under Gen Sheridan, and which is to be enlarged to include all the Indian country, and thus to terminate the evils of a divided Indian jurisdiction General Meade will be likely to succeed to the command of the Pacific division unless he should prefer to remain on the Atlantic slope in which case he could receive a department command under the Lieutenant General, and General Halleck, now in chief command in the South, be restored to his coveted post at San Francisco The Department of the Lakes will in all probability be discontinued and its commander General Cooke, find the reward of long and faithful service in the repose of the retired list Other changes contingent upon those now fore shadowed are contemplated, but they are in an inchoate condition at present and do not afford enough ground for safe prediction of their character The plan is one upon which the administration has spent much time, and will be faithfully carried into execution by the President

Many freight teams from Grande Ronde, Oregon, are arriving with flour and bacon at Boise and Idaho cities

The Affray at Salem

SALEM June 14 —Mr. Clarke, editor of the Statesman was assaulted this afternoon on the street by W H Watkinds, Superintendent of the penitentiary, who attempted to cowhide him Clarke struck at his assailant several times with a pocket knife, when the latter fired several shots from a revolver at Clarke, none, however taking effect Watkinds was arrested and placed under $1 000 bonds

The Watkinds–Clarke Affair

The following account of the affray at Salem is given by the Statesman

Yesterday afternoon there occurred on Commercial street, an affray in which the editor of this paper was cowhided and shot but fortunately the cowhide only hit his hat and the bullet glanced without inflicting a dangerous wound The would be murderer and assassin was comforted and furnished with $1,000 bail to appear before J J Murphy, J P, this morning for examination The cowhiding was a failure, and we were enjoying a nice time on the defensive, driving the assailant before a pocket knife, when the other man, who is the fellow Shultz brags so on, pulled out a revolver, firing four times within ten paces and only making one hit That is the poorest shooting on record, and it is the purest sham in the world for such a man to go about hunting for Shultz If he was to find Shultz he would run faster than he ever did from a mare mule As this affair is to come before the courts we do not choose to give any fuller statement save to say that the attack was made unexpectedly, entirely so and the cowardly red headed scoundrel struck from behind, and struck a man that goes unarmed

The Virtues of California and Nevada Sage Brush

A RANGE WHERE SAGE BRUSH GROWS ABUNdant is the first thing sought after by persons engaged in Stock raising on account of its fattening properties Meat, fattened upon it possesses a finer flavor, and retains more of the natural juices than that fed upon the grasses of the country A chemical analysis of Sage shows it to contain about eighty five per cent of nutritious matter such as go to make fat, etc But it is not alone in regard to its great virtues as food for stock that we propose to speak; but in these days of humbuggery Quack Medicines etc any article that will supplant the many nostrums that are of no earthly use by giving the needy a cheap, safe and certain article for the same purpose is at least a saving to the community in that direction We allude to its HAIR RESTORING qualities For this purpose alone it so far surpasses the preparations usually found in Drug Stores as to make them utterly valueless compared with the really restorative qualities it possesses and will accomplish more in restoring bald heads, [checking] falling hair renovating, and giving healthy action to the scalp, than a whole store of the usual remedies advertised for that purpose Hundreds now in Nevada can testify to this fact, and a trial will convince any doubting that what we say of it in this respect will be borne out by results if he will give it a fair trial The man who first brings the Sage Brush before the public as a Hair Restorative will not only drive every other preparation for that purpose out of the market, but will secure for himself a colossal fortune —Elko Independent Jan 28th 1871

AY MORNING, JUNE 16, 1871.

CITY.

The River.—Just at present, the stage of the river, the rate at which it is rising, and how long it is likely to continue to rise, are questions [illegible] almost everybody in the city. For [illegible] two or three days the rise has been at the rate of about 12 inches every twenty-four hours. Last evening the stage was not yet quite as high as in 1866, and it lacked about four feet of coming up to the highest mark of 1862. News from the Dalles was to the effect that the Columbia at that place was rising at the rate of an inch an hour, and the people were moving out of the houses in the lower part of the town to higher ground toward the bluff, or into their second stories. At this city, the water last evening was within a few inches of covering North Front street at the foot of F street. Below that point, the ground is all under. A rise of a few inches more will prevent the passage of heavy teams, at least to the new dock or to the F street ferry landing, not because of depth of water, but because the street fill there is mostly saw dust and shavings, which will be so soft as soon as covered with water, as to be miry. The merchants and others at the north end are preparing already, many of them—for the flooding of their floors. With a foot greater rise, Schenck's saloon and the O. S. N. Co.'s office floors will be covered. The water already runs around the street side of the [illegible]. At East Portland the flood is likely to [illegible] some also. The J street bridge is [illegible] more than a foot out of water; [illegible] higher water will submerge some of the [illegible] on the bridge. The railroad [illegible] the long trestle bridge and the [illegible] creek bridge is mostly under water, in [illegible] enough to put out the fires of the locomotives as they run through it. From all [illegible] from the snow mountain regions whence [illegible] all this water, it may be reasonably concluded that there will yet be a considerable rise. [illegible] who have lived in the country from its [illegible], predict that there will be yet [illegible] four feet higher water than now. The [illegible] of water, therefore, which most interests people in all the lower parts of the city is not so much what the Water Co. charges for it, but how high is the flood going to be.

[illegible] Rescue Flood.—Yesterday, a gentleman [illegible] in pulling out some lumber along [illegible] & Porter's sash and door factory, at [illegible], for the purpose of getting better [illegible] on to a piece of steamboat [illegible] floating near. The deck, though [illegible] proudly trod many a time in days of [illegible] weakened with age, and was not on [illegible] equal to the emergency. It began [illegible], till the passenger was knee [illegible] deep in the water, and vainly [illegible] the "tarnal thing." Finally, [illegible] to the left, gave the deck a chance [illegible] to the right and to the surface. In about ten or fifteen seconds a [illegible] might have been seen snorting and [illegible] and dragging himself as wet as wet [illegible] on the lumber pile. He sounded no [illegible] a note. He didn't want anybody [illegible], under such circumstances, people [illegible] laugh; and so, as silently as [illegible] away, and never told his tale [illegible] or two, and they are the chaps [illegible] to accept the Captain's hospitality on [illegible]. We shan't tell who it was, but the [illegible] of his name is Capt. Harlow.

[illegible] near Shoalwater Bay.—Mr. S. [illegible] and some others leave this morning to [illegible] a settlement on Nascolle river which [illegible] Shoalwater Bay. There are about a [illegible] here or in the neighborhood who [illegible] rate within a short time to that [illegible]. Mr. Barr, who has twice visited and ex[illegible] this year, speaks of it as large [illegible] afford room for about one hundred [illegible] each with a farm. A portion is prairie [illegible] balance covered with cottonwood and [illegible]. The river at the point where Mr. [illegible] taken a claim is about three hundred feet wide, and he is confident that it is [illegible] fifteen or twenty miles from [illegible] Bay. The valley is about twenty-five miles in length. The point where Mr. [illegible] several others have located, is about six miles nearly north of Cementville and [illegible] miles from Shoalwater. Mr. Barr represents [illegible] as very handsome, and the soil [illegible] loam. He, with the other settlers [illegible], and Mr. Knapp of Cementville, [illegible] open a road immediately, there being [illegible] construction except for the first [illegible] Cementville.

[illegible] Primaries.—The Democratic [illegible] were held last evening. The meetings [illegible] wards passed off quietly and not a very [illegible] was cast. The "Oro Fino Fellows" [illegible] got cleaned out, and the "Herald [illegible] flushed with victory. The nominations are as follows: For Councilman—[illegible] (3 years) Jas. S. Hill; [who is Hill?] [illegible] Ward (3 years) Leon Vial; Third Ward, [illegible] G. W. Brown, (1 year) E. Corbett. The [illegible] to the City Convention are as follows: [illegible], Joseph Tucker, James Partlow, I. [illegible], H. L. Herman, Alex. Campbell. [illegible], Joe Riley, John Ladd, E. J. Bry[illegible] J. Jeffreys, D. Jacobi. Third Ward, J. [illegible] W. K. Smith, L. Delschneider, M. M. [illegible] W. Brown.

[illegible] Asylum.—Dr. A. D. Ellis, the [illegible] visiting physician to the Insane Asylum, [illegible] us the following synopsis of his [illegible] the quarter ending May 31st, 1871: [illegible] inmates at the beginning of the quarter [illegible]; admitted during the quarter 13—5 [illegible] 8 males; discharged during the quarter [illegible] and 1 male; died 1—David Hart, [illegible]. The persons admitted were from the [illegible] counties: Multnomah, 4; Linn, 2; [illegible], Douglas, Washington, Benton, Yamhill, [illegible] and Marion, each, 1. Total May 31st [illegible].

[illegible] Railroad "Departure."—The flood [illegible] over the railroad track near Mr. J. B. [illegible] house, it has become problematical [illegible] the trains can much longer get down to [illegible]. To provide for such an emergency [illegible] was yesterday making preparations [illegible] a new turn out track, south of the [illegible] creek bridge. When the submerged [illegible] no longer be used, the trains will have [illegible] the latter bridge, and the ferry boat [illegible] to take passengers to and from that [illegible].

Missionary Tour.—Rev. A. E. Fredrichsen, [illegible] of the Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran [illegible] of Portland, will leave this morning for [illegible], and thence upon a missionary tour [illegible] Washington Territory. His principal [illegible], of course, will be to look out for the in[illegible] of the church; but he will, while absent, [illegible] some of the country with a view to re[illegible] any Scandinavian immigrants, the advan[illegible] to be found for settlement of his country[illegible].

[illegible]—This office presents its grateful acknowl[illegible] to Mr. J. M. Kallich for bountiful sup[illegible] of ice during the latter days of exceeding [illegible]. Coals [illegible], between neighbors, is sometimes [illegible] thing, and when it comes in big [illegible] of this sort, we don't wish to be under[illegible] as interposing any objection. Mr. Kallich [illegible] to supply any amount of ice to order, [illegible] ounce to a million or two pounds.

[illegible] up the Columbia Suspended.—[illegible] having been received by the O. S. N. Co. [illegible] landing at the Dalles, as well as a por[illegible] of the railroad, is under water, orders have [illegible] to receive no more freight for trans[illegible] up the Columbia. The steamers will [illegible], however, make trips as usual, carrying [illegible].

[illegible] for Eastern Oregon.—Mr. James [illegible], of Union county, arrived down from [illegible] valley yesterday, with about four [illegible] hogs, purchased for his ranch in Eastern [illegible]. The boats having quit taking freight [illegible] the present Mr. H. has got a lot of swine on [illegible] that he don't exactly know what to do [illegible].

[illegible] Bleeding.—A man named Maloney, [illegible] of this city, now at the Dalles, drank [illegible] got the blues, and on Tuesday tried to com[illegible] by bleeding. He was interrupted by [illegible] of his friends before he had bled enough to [illegible] much harm.

[illegible].—A man named Hugh Jones, while [illegible] at Jones' saw mill on the Macadamized [illegible] had his foot severely cut, necessitating the [illegible] of one or two of his toes.

[illegible].—Bids are invited till Monday the [illegible], to build a church in East Portland. Plans [illegible] may be seen at the Multnomah [illegible].

CARD OF THANKS.

We, the Board of the Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran Church of Portland, Oregon, and Building Committee, appointed and authorized June 9th, 1871, by the Assembly of the same, to return thanks, take this public method of tendering our most heartfelt gratitude in behalf of said Church, to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stephens for their very liberal donation of lots 3 and 4 in block 86, Stephens' Addition to the town of East Portland.

Our grateful acknowledgments are also hereby expressed to Dr. A. M. Loryea, S. E. Josephi, (Notary Public) and to Attorneys Bull & Durham, for their great kindness and important aid in taking the necessary legal steps to secure this liberal donation.

Although unable, at present, to avail ourselves of the very generous offer of Ben Holladay, Esq., of two lots for Church purposes, in his addition to East Portland, we nevertheless express our sincere thanks to this gentleman for this offering, hoping, also, at no very distant day, to be in a condition enabling us to accept of it in behalf of another expected sister Church.

Our grateful thanks are also due to Mr. S. J. McCormick for kindly furnishing us two Recording books.

Finally, in behalf of the whole Lutheran Church, we add in this connection, our most grateful acknowledgments to the editors of the several newspapers, who have so kindly noticed our endeavors and helped our cause by advertising and recommending it so heartily to the favorable consideration of a generous public.

Respectfully we recommend our new organized Church to further kindly remembrance.

A. E. FRIDRICHSEN, Pastor,
Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran Church,
Portland, Oregon.

Helman Knong, Secretary.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Hall McAllister, a distinguished attorney of San Francisco, arrived Wednesday evening by overland route to take an active part in the Elliott-Holladay suit, as an associate attorney with Mr. Mitchell, for Holladay.

We are informed that Prof. R. K. Warren, late principal of the Portland Central School, has been engaged for a long term to take charge of the college at Albany, which has fallen somewhat into decay, since Mr. Warren left it to come here.

Mr. I. R. Moores, the Land Agent for the O. & C. R. R. Co., is soon to remove with his family to this city to reside.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Fruit Jars.—The Victory fruit jars manufactured of glass at San Francisco, are worthy to be commended to general use. Glass jars preserve fruit better than tin cans.

☞ Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery will not raise the dead, but it will benefit and cure the living. For all severe Coughs, Throat and Bronchial diseases it has never yet been equalled. For "Liver Complaint" or "Biliousness," and Constipation of the Bowels, it is a never failing remedy. Sold by druggists.

Coughs and Colds are often overlooked. A continuance for any length of time causes irritation of the Lungs or some chronic Throat Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" are offered with the fullest confidence in their efficacy, giving almost invariably sure and immediate relief.

Owing to the good reputation and popularity of the Troches, many worthless and cheap imitations are offered, which are good for nothing. Be sure to obtain the true "Brown's Bronchial Troches." Sold everywhere.

Let Common Sense Decide.
What is the rational procedure in cases of general debility and nervous prostration? Does not reason tell us that judicious stimulation is required? To resort to violent purgation in such a case is as absurd as it would be to bleed a starving man. Yet it is done every day. Yes, this stupid and unphilosophical practice is continued in the teeth of the great fact that physical weakness, with all the nervous disturbances that accompany it, is more certainly and rapidly relieved by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters than by any other medicine at present known. It is true that general debility is often attended with torpidity or irregularity of the bowels, and that this symptom must not be overlooked. But while the discharge of the waste matter of the system is expedited or regulated, its vigor must be recruited. The Bitters do both. They combine aperient and antibilious properties, with extraordinary tonic power. Even while removing obstructions from the bowels, they tone and invigorate those organs. Through the stomach, upon which the great vegetable specific acts directly, it gives a healthy and permanent impetus to every enfeebled function. Digestion is facilitated, the faltering circulation regulated, the blood reinforced with a new accession of the alimentary principles, the nerves braced, and all the dormant powers of the system roused into healthy action; not spasmodically, as would be the case if a mere stimulant were administered, but for a continuance. It is in this way that such extraordinary changes are wrought in the condition of the feeble, emaciated and nervous invalids by the use of this wonderful corrective, alterative and tonic. Let common sense decide between such a preparation and a prostrating cathartic supplemented by poisonous astringent like strychnine or quinia.

Stock Books Open.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING BEEN APPOINTED by the incorporators of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad Company to open books and receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, does hereby declare such books now open for subscription at his office in this city.

This is done now, because it was believed that the citizens of Oregon (and especially of Portland, and those along the line of the proposed road) would desire to take sufficient stock, at least to be an endorsement of the enterprise, and enable them to exert an influence in its management.

A certain proportion of the Directors are required to be residents of the State, who must first become stockholders before Directors. While the invitation to subscribe thereto is general, I will visit Eastern Oregon and Idaho during the month of July to give the citizens there an opportunity of engaging with us in the good cause.

POLITICAL NOTES.

It is very remarkable how utterly the Chinaman has dropped out of California politics. We hear nothing more of the man and brother with the pig-tail.

Says the New York Tribune: Such as the Vallandigham is, over one-third of the Ohio delegates voted to substitute the minority report. The Convention barely escaped breaking up in a row, and there is still imminent danger of a split. For men do not put new wine into old bottles.

Orange S. Winans, the New York Republican Assemblyman, who sold out to Tammany for a consideration, has been presented "by his Democratic friends" with a $1,000 watch and chain. If Judas were to reappear we presume he would be a Democratic candidate for Congress, and Benedict Arnold would run for Vice President, at least.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Portland, Thursday, June 15, 1871.

Gold quotations at New York, 112½—same as at our last report.

Currency quotations, Portland, 89½c buying; 90½c selling.

Exchange—On San Francisco, ½ per cent.; on New York, 1½ per cent.

Telegraphic transfers—On New York, 1½ per cent premium.

Interest—Bank rates for short loans, 1 per cent;

There is no new feature in the money market since our last report.

In mercantile affairs there seems to be a pretty general prosperity. Most of the wholesale dealers are kept busy to keep up with and supply the constantly increasing orders from the country. In general, prices remain as heretofore quoted. Stocks are heavy and assortments very full.

The demand for agricultural goods and farm wagons is a notable feature in the markets. The two principal houses in this line are doing a fine business, being scarcely able to ship as rapidly as the goods are wanted. [illegible] ware lines are also enjoying a good healthy trade. [illegible] the reader to a revision of the quotations for [illegible] trade in New York and at San Francisco [illegible] some time ago, the plan of quoting 10d to 60d [illegible] of the scale for nails, and other sizes as so [illegible] per keg on the price of 10d@60d. The [illegible] adopted by the dealers of this city on the 1st [illegible].

There is a perceptible improvement in the dry goods [illegible] within the week. Prices as before quoted. Fancy goods are coming into good request.

The Produce market is rather quiet. There is a fair demand for wheat at $1 25 for good white shipping [illegible]. We have heard of one case in which the extreme price of $1 30 was paid, but this is not an index [illegible] general range. Good red wheat commands $1 20. [illegible] has dropped 50 c's per barrel, under the depression [illegible] of what seems a permanent decline in our selling markets.

In the matter of wool, we have in self-justification, an explanation to make. Our quotation has stood for several months at 22c, while in fact the price paid by our dealers, have been from 22c to 35c for a considerable part of that time, the prevailing price for some weeks being 25 to 35c. Wool growers have recently complained that our quotation was false and misleading. Now we have only this to say: Our commercial reporter [illegible] in the commercial business. For the purpose [illegible] the price-lists corrected, the reporter [illegible] to nearly all the leading dealers [illegible] requests them to correct whatever there may [illegible] which does not accurately represent the [illegible] takes the quotations exactly as they are given [illegible] merchants. If they change a figure, [illegible] paper; if they do not change anything [illegible] for granted that everything in the list is right. In the matter of wool, there has been a singular omission to change the quotation. The reporter disclaims all responsibility for it. If he cannot get those [illegible] such matters, to give him accurate information [illegible] helpless. This week, we have put the [illegible] as to the market value of wool and find that Wallamet valley, first quality, is worth 35c; Eastern Oregon and Walla Walla, 32 cts.

The [illegible] on the Wallamet and Columbia rivers has [illegible], by the substituting of the Annie Stewart and the withdrawal of the Vancouver to the Vancouver route.

The value of the California cargo to Victoria, last Wednesday, amounted to $5,702 40. The Falkinburg sailed on Tuesday for Honolulu, with a part cargo of produce, valued at $[illegible] 340 50. The Panama sailed on Wednesday for Cork for orders with a cargo of wheat valued at $[illegible],618 43. The steamer Stephens and Constantine [illegible] a full cargo of produce for San Francisco.

The [illegible] from Liverpool, bound for Portland, is reported lost. She had a heavy and valuable cargo, consisting of fine liquors, drugs, dry goods, etc., consigned to [illegible] & Rhodes. There are no particulars of the disaster.

We clip the following paragraphs from the San Francisco Bulletin of June 8th:

Sydney dates to May 4th are received. The brig Kentucky, hence for Brisbane, was wrecked off Queensland, and all hands are supposed to have been lost. The [illegible] and Emma C. Beal had sailed for San Francisco with 3,300 tons Coal, to be followed by the [illegible] Castle and Thomas Stowe. Wheat was quoted at [illegible] ℔ bushel, and Flour at £14 10s to £15 10s ℔ ton. Petroleum, 64d ℔ gall; Oregon Salmon, [illegible] ℔ dozen 1-lb tins. Lumber was in good supply, though there was none in first hands.

The [illegible] bound fleet is now larger than it has been [illegible] time. So far as known, 138 vessels are now heading for this port. Most of the number hail from Europe, that portion of the fleet consisting of 65 vessels, while [illegible] vessels are on the way here from New York, Boston and Baltimore. The remainder of the fleet hail from Central and South America, Mexico, Australia, Pacific Islands and the China Seas. Of the 65 vessels on the way here from Europe, 1 hails from Wales, 5 from Germany, 10 from France, 13 from Scotland and 31 from England, most of the last named sailing out of Liverpool.

We have Honolulu dates to May 26th. The steamer Nebraska made the run down from San Francisco inside [illegible] eight days, and sailed on the following day for Auckland [illegible] sugar. The British bark [illegible] and the [illegible] bark Hilda Chirns had arrived from Australia with coal for the North Pacific Transportation Company. Both vessels were under charter to [illegible] for Europe [illegible] latter to take her cargo from Malden's Island. This island is in latitude 5 degrees north and [illegible] 152 degrees west, and is owned by parties [illegible], known as the Malden's Island [illegible] Company. The Hawaiian bark Queen Emma sailed [illegible] on the 16th May, with a cargo valued at [illegible], including 721,000 lbs sugar and 7,000 gallons [illegible]; and was followed on the 23d May by the [illegible], with a cargo valued at $30,000, including [illegible] No. 1 sugar, 3,000 gallons molasses, and [illegible]. The brig Crown had secured a full cargo of sugar and [illegible] for Sydney, and was to sail for that port [illegible] the 1st June.

The New York Bulletin of May 31st has a long editorial [illegible] of a speculation in the wool trade. It [illegible] the opening of the year there has been an advance of [illegible]8c on Western wool, 5c on California, [illegible] 5@6 on Mestiza, while as compared with this date last year, prices are from 15 to 20 per cent. higher. The advance has been altogether out of proportion to the rise in the English market. The importations of wool into the United Kingdom for the first [illegible] months of the year were 125,200,000 lbs, against [illegible],555,000 lbs for the same time last year. Included in the quantity for this year was 89 603,000 lbs from Australia, against 79,457,000 lbs in 1870.

THE UNK WEED REMEDY

OR

OREGON RHEUMATIC CURE!

HISTORY.

THIS REMEDY IS COMPOSED OF THE ACTIVE principle of the Unk Weed, Eng.—Thaspium Cordatum Origanis, Lat.—Indigenous to Oregon. Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington county.

It is the most sure and speedy cure for RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT AND RHEUMATIC PAINS, of all kinds that was ever introduced in the Materia Medica.

Read the following certificates of the above fact from several of the most distinguished citizens of Oregon:

Certificate from A. R. Shipley, Esq., special contributor to the Willamette Farmer, and Secretary of the Oregon Horticultural Society:

Oswego, Or., March 28, 1871.

Dr. A. M. Loryea—Some four weeks ago I was entirely prostrated with Rheumatism; in fact I was almost helpless. I sent to you for one 10 ounce bottle of the "Unk Weed Remedy," by the use of which I experienced almost immediate relief; and by the time the bottle was gone the Rheumatism was gone. From my own experience, and from what I have heard others say who have used the Unk Weed, I believe it to be a certain cure for Rheumatism. Yours, respectfully, A. R. SHIPLEY.

Certificate from the Hon. A. J. Dufur, ex-President of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, and author of "Statistics of Oregon:"

East Portland, April 1, 1871.

Dr. A. M. Loryea & Co.—I was afflicted with a severe attack of Chronic Rheumatism: was confined to my bed most of the time from January to July, when I used the Unk Weed, and it cured me up. A. J. DUFUR.

Certificate from Hon. Gideon Tibbetts, a member of the City Council of East Portland:

East Portland, April 7, 1871.

Dr. A. M. Loryea & Co.—Gents: This is to inform you that I have used your "Unk Weed Remedy" for Neuralgia and Rheumatic pains, and found relief from the use of only one bottle, and can recommend it to those in need of such a remedy. Yours, GIDEON TIBBETTS.

Certificate from Mr. James Dybee, the celebrated stock grower and "King of the Oregon Turf:"

Sauvie's Island, January 14, 1871.

To Dr. A. M. Loryea & Co.—This is to acknowledge the efficacy of your "Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure." I was afflicted for months with a very serious attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism, and tried nearly all the so-called Rheumatic remedies without any relief perceivable. I then tried your Remedy, and its use resulted in the most happy effects—a perfect cure. Truly yours, JAMES DYBEE.

Certificate from Hon. E. L. Quimby, ex-County Commissioner of Multnomah county, Oregon:

East Portland, April 1, 1871.

Dr. A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy," and am satisfied it is a valuable medicine. It regulates and invigorates the system. This is my experience with the remedy. Truly yours, E. L. QUIMBY.

Certificate from Hon. N. H. Lane, Pilot Commissioner of Oregon, and a member of the City Council of East Portland:

East Portland, April 19, 1871.

Dr. A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have been afflicted for several years with "weakness in the back," and [illegible] Rheumatic pains, accompanied by severe constipation. By the use of one bottle of your Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure, I have been entirely relieved, and I cheerfully recommend it as a most valuable and efficient remedy. NAT. H. LANE.

Certificate from the well-known merchant, O. W. Weaver, Esq.

The Dalles, May 23, 1871.

Dr. A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy" and can cheerfully recommend it to persons afflicted with Inflammatory Rheumatism. It cured me of that disease. My hands, wrists, ankles, indeed, all my joints were swollen and very painful. O. W. WEAVER.

Certificate from the celebrated musician, Prof. Otto Vieuxtemps:

Oregon Musical Institute, Portland, May 22, 1871.

Dr. A. M. Loryea & Co.—I was attacked with severe Inflammatory Rheumatism, suffering great pain, and was so prostrated that I was unable to attend to my business. I used one bottle of your Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure, and was entirely cured by it alone. OTTO VIEUXTEMPS.

Put up in 10-ounce bottles, at $1 50 per bottle.
